10 Truths:

1. I cannot whistle, snap my fingers or swim.
2. I used to cross-dress when I was in highschool. I got quite a lot of shit for it.
3. I didn't learn how to ride a bike until I was 16, and I couldn't masturbate until I was 19.
4. I've had 12 jobs in the past 4 years. (I've masturbated in the bathroom of most of them while on the clock).
5. I didn't leave the state of Ohio until I was 19, when I went on my first of a series of cross-country greyhound adventures.
6. I've released over 20 albums with various bands and solo projects, but have only played about 12 or so gigs.
7. I "lost" my virginity when I was 15, and left my mom's house at the same time.
8. I once held a loaded gun to my head when I was about 13 or 12.
9. I have a skin disease called tinea versicolor, it gives me orange splotches
10. I really need to shave the beard I have right now.

I QUIT MY SHITTY
GROCERY JOB A
FEW MONTHS AGO,
I'M DOING FREEL-
ANCE WRITING.
I'M HAPPIER.

I ALSO CUT MY HAIR
AFTER 3 1/2 YEARS OF
GROWING IT. IT'S CURRENTLY PINK.

I LOV
YOU
BUT I DO
KNOW
WHY

Prostitution

I feel that prostitution should be legalized and decriminalized in the United States.

Why? Because I see Sex Work as no different from any type of work, and I feel that Prostitutes and other sex workers deserve the same rights of any other class of workers. The only difference I see between flipping burgers at McDonalds and sucking cock for a living is that the latter can pay much higher per hour.

Face it: The majority of jobs are degrading in one way or another. Why not sell your body to make more money out of the degradation?

The bottom line is that it is the individual's choice, not society's.

And if you choose to sell your body, you should be able to do so as safely as possible. You shouldn't have to fear for your life every time you go to work. If prostitutes weren't treated like criminals, I believe there would be less violence committed against them.

Legalizing and decriminalizing prostitution is the way to go. The only thing standing in the way is asinine, outdated Christian morality and Conservative politics.
